

Communications Department

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 14, 2015

Contact: Yaoska “Angy” Abaunza
870-336-7170
yabaunza@jonesboro.org

Volunteers Needed for Spread Your Change Festival

Jonesboro, AR— On Saturday, May 16 at University Lions Park, 502 ½ Bridge Street (behind SUCCESS School) the North Jonesboro Neighborhood Initiative will be hosting the entire city at the 1st Annual Race for Change 5K, and the Spread Your Change Festival immediately following.

Volunteers are needed for both events to help with setup and closing; registration and information; refreshments; safety; and general service. You can register online to volunteer at <http://www.jonesboro.org/FormCenter/10/94> or by contacting Angy Abaunza at 870-336-7170.

The 1st Annual Race for Change 5K will be the first to be entirely run through the streets of North Jonesboro. It will begin at 8:00 a.m. and will be run on a certified course. Registration for the Race for Change 5K is $15 for adults, $10 for children under 18, and is due by Friday, May 15. Registration is $20 the day of the race. Runners can register at Stearns Racing at <http://www.stearnsracetiming.com/Calendar/Calendar.htm>

The Spread Your Change Festival will be held from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. at University Lions Park and will include a catfish cooking contest; a pop-up town market featuring local gardeners and artisans; music and entertainment; and a Kids’ Zone featuring inflatables, games, a petting zoo and more. Registration for the catfish cooking contest is $75. Entries will be judged and prizes awarded.

For more information, contact:
Yaoska “Angy” Abaunza
870-336-7170
yabaunza@jonesboro.org

###